IMPROVEMENTS MADE IN SMITH CREEK BRIDGE DRAW

W. D. Bradshaw, Wiley Melton and W. S. Edwards, who returned Sunday from the head of the river, where for ten or twelve days they have been making repairs on the Smith Creek draw bridge, say that the draw is now in fine condition and can be opened or closed in one-third the time formerly required and with much more ease. The wheel used to handle the draw has been replaced by a lever, which they say even a child can turn.

WARM MUNICIPAL CONTEST DRAWING TO A CLOSE.

TOMORROW WILL DETERMINE WHO WILL OFFICER DAYTONA FOR THE ENSUING YEAR.

Today will close one of the most interesting and warmly contested municipal campaigns in the recent history of Daytona, and tomorrow will determine who will officer the city for the ensuing year.

There is little competition for the offices of alderman but for offices with salaries attached there is spirited controversy.

The office of mayor is perhaps attracting more attention than any one other office. There are three candidates: Henry T. Titus, E. W. Greene and M. H. Zuber.

It is quite generally conceded that Judge Titus possesses the greatest strength, having the support of a majority of the business men and others who desire an up-to-date progressive city. Daytona has long passed out of its swaddling clothes and is now on a wake of progress and prosperity and needs officials who will assist in all movements looking to the development of the city. The Daily News believes that Judge Titus is best fitted of the three candidates for the office and if elected will be a live wire in the way of progressive...

SEABREEZE AND DAYTONA BEACH

By L. C. DEMAREE.

One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River.

Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon the waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pouch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon th beautiful surface. Take out your fiel glass and sweep the river from Ormonde bridge to Port Foree Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live oaks extend their giant arms across the magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from the tropic seas fan them . Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with ofish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

See the glistening leaf of the grand magnolia which nature has varnished as no artists' brush ever could; and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palms; see the lovely holly with its exquisite berry; see the climbing vines run riot in the trees; see the cryptogamous forms which gain a foothold on the great oaks and stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty .

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps, commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottages . The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and, as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another, so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering, "What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of these homes which rivets attention; within they are models of convenience, and the finishing and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed, it is the interior arrangement and artistic furnishing and shading, more than the exterior appearance that gives a surpassing charm to Daytona homes . This feature justly merits prominence in another wonder.

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed, but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the finishing touches which have wrought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways intersecting miles upon miles of driveways so good as to attract motorists from all over the continent.

And as for the pavements, pavements that look and act like granite, —where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Till some unheard of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruit.

Whatever some's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "flowers and Squirrels, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare goober there is a bunny ready to come and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and knaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers. Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round You are reminded of Goldsmith's couplet where

Smiling spring its earliest visit paid
And summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.

In one yard roses of variated hues predominate; another household has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane. Variety is the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture .

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are acres of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes, which for beauty, proficiency and all desirable qualities would truly astonish you.

The Fastest Autos and The Finest Out.

The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine, from Kalamazoo or Timbuckto, and you will be "shown." Here is where the world's record for speed is broken with every recurring season. Autos, the biggest, the fastest, and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousands of flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene.

Everything goes, from a 2-horse power, up to a 200-horse power, and all degrees of speed from acanter to a two-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit, when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down into your wallet only for coin for auto, and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

SEABREEZE and DAYTONA BEACH, two enterprising and progressive towns on the Halifax Peninsula, are geographically one although incorporated as separate municipalities. The towns parallel the peninsula north and south for a distance of from three and one-half to four miles, and extend east and west from the surging seas of the Atlantic Ocean to the Halifax River, the beautiful tide-water stream that sets them apart from Daytona, with which they have close communication by means of three bridges, as well as a half-hour ferry service.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach are essentially summer and winter resorts and are making hundreds of new friends every year among those who desire to escape the disconcerting extremes of heat and cold, and their hotels and boarding houses are now receiving splendid patronage from the most discriminating class of tourists.

The mean average temperature, 68 degrees in the summer and 70 degrees in the winter, with an occasional extra rise or drop of a few days' duration, marks this as one of the most healthful locations in any section of the country, north, east, south or west.

The ocean itself, with its marvelous beach, hard as macadam and even as a floor, is the greatest attraction, although earth and air and sky seem to have entered into a combination to enhance its every charm. The beach is the famous automobile race course where every world's straightaway record has been made, and all these records it continues to hold without rivalry.

The sand of this famous speedway is composed largely of the shells of the coquina clam, which are about one-half inch long and very thin. For ages Nature has been rolling them up, washing them back into the surf and pulverizing them. Examined under the microscope each particle is round, unfit for mortar, builders say, because its smoothness prevents its holding together, yet, strange to contemplate, the very moment a wave leaves the wet, apparently soft beach, these round particles settle down into a cement almost as hard as asphalt, beyond the comprehension of one who has not seen it. Repairs are unnecessary, as twice each 24 hours it is entirely rebuilt by the tides. The beach has a width of 300 to 500 feet, and can be used from two hours after until two hours before high tide, thus giving an average of seven or eight hours for automobiling some part of each day.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach each have a permanent population of approximately 1500. Sanitary ordinances are strictly enforced, streets and sidewalks are well kept, and new streets are being opened as fast as the increasing population demands. Besides hotels and boarding houses there is ample cottage accomodation for all winter visitors.

Seabreeze contains a handsome opera house and a Congregational Church; at Daytona Beach is a M. E. Church. An excellent high school is situated near the division line between the two towns. Both towns have enterprising business establishments, as is evidenced by the advertisements on the left and right.

All the attractiveness of Seabreeze applies to Daytona Beach, the two towns being so similarly situated. The development of Daytona Beach has been fully as phenominal as its sister on the north, and each year there is a substantial growth. The great sand dunes have been leveled and handsome homes have been built for both winter and all-year-round occupancy. Flowering shrubs have been planted, which are covered with a wealth of bloom both summer and winter.

Work of rebuilding the Clarendon hotel is now in progress. This magnificent fire-proof structure, which is to contain 250 rooms, when completed will be the peer of any hotel in Florida. The site is immediately north of the clubhouse of the Florida East Coast Automobile Association.

The Ocean Pier is a great attraction to fishermen and it is lined summer and winter with enthusiastic disciples of Izaak Walton, who find it nothing unusual to land fish weighing several hundred pounds.

By L. C. DEMAREE.

One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River.

Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon the waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pouch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon th beautiful surface. Take out your fiel glass and sweep the river from Ormondg bride to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live oaks extend their giant arms across the magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from the tropic seas fan them . Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

See the glistening leaf of the grand magnolia which nature has varnished as no artists' brush ever could; and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palms; see the lovely holly with its exquisite berry; see the climbing vines run riot in the trees; see the cryptogamons forms which gain a foothold on the great oaks and stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty .

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps, commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artisic cottages . The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and, as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another, so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty fror one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering, "What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of thsee homes which rivets attention; within they are models of convenience, and the finishing and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed, it is the interior arrangement and artistic furnishing and shading, more than the exterior appearance that gives a surpassing charm to Daytona homes . This feature justly merits prominence as another wonder.

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect oof the Universe chose to give Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed, but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the finishing touches which have wrought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

PROGRESSIVE NEW SMYRNA

NEW SMYRNA is situated fifteen miles south of Daytona and is an ideal spot reached from Daytona by a hard surface road winding through one of the most picturesque parts of Florida.

With its ancient ruins dating back to a time when the history of man records not, interlaced with wires of the modern telegraph and telephone, its miles of shell streets as hard and smooth as a floor and over-arched by lofty forest giants that grew in stately grandeur during the lapse of bygone centuries New Smyrna is truly a place of romance and rest.

All nature here is very inviting to the tourist and pleasure-seeker. Here too is to be found the best fishing and boating in the State of Florida.

The people are thrifty, the business men enterprising, and all unite in extending the welcome hand of hospitality to strangers. There are five church edifices for white people and an equal number for the colored population; the town has an excellent high school, a splendid public library, and up-to-date business houses.

There are any number of pretty homes for the permanent population, which numbers close to 2,000, and some very fine winter residences. There are good hotels and boarding houses where you can find accomodations to meet your requirements.

Adjoining New Smyrna is as fine a section of vegetable land as can be found anywhere. This land has been divided into small farms which can be bought at reasonable prices Some of the finest celery grown in the State is raised on this land. All other vegetables grow in abundance, and here, too, is the home of the famous Indian River oranges.

New Smyrna has no bonded indebtedness and the tax levy is low.

A point that no tourist should fail to visit is the ruins of the Old Spanish Mission which, stand somber and alone about one and a quarter miles southwest of New Smyrna. A good road leads to the place and the trip can be easily made by automobile.

Inland, in the great pine flats by the margin of the forest, is this place of pilgrimage for the pious; this rendezvous for the picnicker. The ruins are extensive, and while there is no authentic history of their origin, it is presumed that the Mission was built by the Franciscans in the days when the once powerful Kingdom of Spain first planted its flag upon what is now American soil. It was built of coquina, the roof being of the same material, cut into thin slabs and covered with cement plaster. Extensive gardens surrounded it, which were enclosed by a stone wall, portions of which still remain. Visitors usually come in parties merry and curious but the spell of the place soon falls upon them and they separate to sit alone, silent and meditative, under the arches or beside the ancient well.

CORONADO

Is situated on the peninsula opposite New Smyrna and is connected by a good road and bridge over the deep current of Indian River. Here you can get aside your conventional path, breathe in large and deep the salty tonic of the sea and enjoy yourself to your heart's content with rod and reel in row or sail boat or in the ocean surf a short half-mile away. The great varieties of fish inhabiting the river and lagoon pass through the channel from the sea beneath the bridge. From verandas, upper balconies and windows you behold the magnificent river, the distant lagoons and islands, the forest-covered peninsula and the vast reaches of the Atlantic Ocean.

HAWKS PARK

A pretty village located along the ridge above the Indian River two and one-half miles south of New Smyrna and connected with fine shell roads. There is the appearance of newness, comfort and seclusion about the place which stamps it as the abode of people who come here to enjoy the blessings of outdoor life away from places where crowds are apt to gather.

ORMOND-ON-THE-HALIFAX

ORMOND is five miles north of Daytona, located on the western bank of the Halifax River. The location of the town permits of good drainage and perfect sanitation; the elevation is superb and ideal for winter homes. A wide bridge connects Ormond with Ormond Beach.

Many fine residences are maintained on either side of the river, most of them embellished with sub-tropical flora and shrubbery, besides thrifty orange and other citrus fruit trees.

The town is very cosmopolitan, has an excellent graded school, several churches, a fine public library, up-to-date places of business and comfortable and convenient hotels and boarding houses.

Ormond has many of the Florida attractions—fine fruit, good fishing, excellent automobiling, safe boating, salubrious climate and pleasant walks and drives.

At Ormond Beach is located the large Hotel Ormond, and its lesser sister, Bretton Inn. The former occupies a position overlooking the Halifax River, while the latter has as its outlook the magnificent beach and the broad Atlantic.

The walks in all directions are particularly attractive, and the arbors, shady and inviting spots and romantic nooks are crowded with rustic seats which are mute invitations to enter into the enjoyment thereof.

Besides the broad, smooth ocean beach there are many drives for carriage or automobile—long drives and short drives; drives through groves of golden oranges; drives through dense tropical forests to Spanish ruins; drives to the ancient Causeway built by the slaves of planters of long ago, and drives to the plantations of hospitable settlers, whose places are replete with the interest of Southern fruits and flowers.

One of these interesting plantations is Number Nine, long an island peninsula, five miles north of the Hotel Ormond. Here you see a fine orange grove, together with great varieties of other sub-tropical fruits and flowers.

Five miles further on you come to Moundgrove, one of the finest orange groves in this section of Florida. Moundgrove is on the headwaters of the Halifax River and is amid pretty surroundings. The place is reached by a good road (passing Number Nine) and is a drive all tourists may enjoy.

COTTAGES AND ROOMS TO LET—Furnished; Modern Improvements; on River Front or Side Streets. Rents Reasonable. Write to W. P. COLBY at Ormond.

PICTURESQUE PORT ORANGE

PORT ORANGE is a pretty little village situated five miles south of Daytona on the Daytona-New Smyrna hard-surface road, the scenic highway of the East Coast. The town is located on the Halifax River, over which spans a bridge from the town to the peninsula opposite.

The town is well laid out and has many pretty homes owned and occupied by residents and winter tourists. It has several churches, one of the best graded schools in Volusia county, two general stores, a real estate agency and two or three hotels.

A large number of tourists and winter residents make Port Orange winter headquarters, one of the several attractions being the excellent fishing. Port Orange is in the orange belt and a number of very fine citrus groves are nearby, where oranges, tangerines and grape-fruit hang in profusion. Some of the best trucking land in the State is to be found thereabout and excellent crops are raised.

West of Port Orange a short distance are the remains of the old Dunlawton sugar mill, a spot that is visited every year by hundreds of tourists. At one time all the country west of Port Orange, surrounding the old mill, was a vast sugar-cane and indigo plantation. The mill was operated extensively in those days but has been in disuse for thirty or forty years.

A pretty automobile or carriage drive from Daytona is via the ocean beach to the approach of the Port Orange bridge, across the bridge and then passing through Port Orange to the ruins of the celebrated old sugar mill, returning to Daytona by the road on the mainland. This drive affords a very pleasing variety of scenery.

DeLAND, THE ATHENS OF FLORIDA

DeLAND, the county seat of Volusia County, is situated 23 miles southwest of Daytona and is reached from the latter city by an excellent hard-surface road recently constructed.

At DeLand is located the John B. Stetson University, one of the leading educational institutions of the South. Because of the interest in matters educational DeLand is known as "The Athens of Florida."

Stetson University has a faculty of 50 professors and instructors. There are over $400,000 in buildings and equipment; nearly $300,000 endowment; a Carnegie Library alone representing an investment in building, endowment and books, of more than $120,000. The library is the United States Government depository for the State of Florida, and contains over 13,000 volumes. Science Hall, one of the newest of 16 buildings, with its furnishings, represents an outlay of $60,000. Elizabeth Hall is one of the most beautiful college buildings in the South.

The city has a population of about 3,500, with a thickly settled country adjacent. DeLand proper is five miles east of the St. Johns River, on the high, rolling pine land of the great "Orange Ridge" of Florida.

The predominating products are oranges and grapefruit, the estimated crop from this vicinity being over 300,000 boxes this year. Grapes, peaches, pears, Japan persimmons, plums, pecans, guavas, strawberries and other fruits are grown in plenty.

In the way of public improvements are many miles of fine shell roads, an excellent high school, electric lights, a system of waterworks that is owned and operated by the city, supplying the purest water at little cost.

Nine houses of worship testify that DeLand is a church-going community. Baptists, Episcopalians, Methodists (Northern and Southern), Presbyterians, Christians and Catholics, besides colored Baptists and Methodists, are represented.

The graded school offers a ten years' course, and the building which it occupies is newly furnished throughout, and is one of the most commodious and best equipped public schools in the State.

The trip from Daytona to DeLand is made by automobile in a little over an hour, and there are many pretty drives in the vicinity of the county site. A good road leads to DeLeon Springs, five miles, a historic spot, where 60,000 gallons of water bubble from the earth every minute.

From DeLand automobiles go south to Osteen, 18 miles, on shell and marl roads; the St. Johns is crossed by ferry near Osteen and cars can then continue to Sanford and Orlando by hard road. There is a shell road from DeLand to Orange City, five miles, and a good road from DeLand to Lake Helen, a like distance.

PROGRESSIVE NEW SMYRNA

NEW SMYRNA is situated fifteen miles south of Daytona and is an ideal spot reached from Daytona by a hard surface road winding through one of the most picturesque parts of Florida.

With its ancient ruins dating back to a time when the history of man runneth not, interlaced with wires of the modern telegraph and telephone, its miles of shell streets as hard and smooth as a floor and over-arched by hoary forest giants that grew in stately grandeur during the lapse of bygone centuries, New Smyrna is truly a place of romance and rest.

All nature here is very inviting to the tourist and pleasure-seeker. Here too is to be found the best fishing and hunting in the State of Florida.

The people are thrifty, the business men enterprising, and all unite in extending the welcome hand of hospitality to strangers. There are five church edifices for white people and an equal number for the colored population; the town has an excellent high school, a splendid public library, and up-to-date business houses.

There are any number of pretty homes for the permanent population, which numbers close to 2,000, and some very fine winter residences. There are good hotels and boarding houses where you can find accomodations to meet your requirements.

Adjoining New Smyrna is as fine a section of vegetable land as can be found anywhere. This land has been divided into small farms which can be bought at reasonable prices Some of the finest celery grown in the State is raised on this land. All other vegetables grow in abundance, and here, too, is the home of the famous Indian River oranges.

New Smyrna has no bonded indebtedness and the tax levy is low.

A point that no tourist should fail to visit is the ruins of the Old Spanish Mission which stand somber and alone about one and a quarter miles southwest of New Smyrna. A good road leads to the place and the trip can be easily made by an automobile. Silent, in the great pine flats by the margin of the forest, is this place of pilgrimage for the pious; this rendezvous for the picnicker. The ruins are extensive, and while there is no authentic history of their origin, it is presumed that the Mission was built by the Franciscans in the days when the once powerful Kingdom of Spain first planted its flag upon what is now American soil.. It was built of coquina, the roof being of the same material, cut into thin slabs and covered with cement plaster. Extensive gardens surrounded it, which were enclosed by a stone wall, portions of which still remain. Visitors usually come in parties merry and curious but the spell of the place soon falls upon them and they separate to sit alone, silent and meditative, under the arches or beside the ancient well.

CORONADO

Is situated on the peninsula opposite New Smyrna and is connected by a good road and bridge over the deep current of Indian River. Here you can put aside your conventional garb, breathe in large and deep the salty tonic of the sea and enjoy yourself to your heart's content with rod and reel in row or sail boat or in the ocean surf a short half-mile away. AUTOMOBILE TOURING PARTY CAMPED WITH SEMINOLES.

LOST THEIR WAY ON TRIP TO MIAMI AND MET WITH MANY THINGS NOT ON THE PROGRAM

The automobile touring party composed of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Brackett and three children of New York City; Miss Hughes, of Scranton, Pa.; Jessen Allsport, of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Fred J. Baird, of Warwick, N. Y., which left this city the 14th of last month, continueing their journey from Jacksonville to Miami, met with some extraordinary experiences on the way, in most part due to their having strayed from the none too well defined highway.

The slight difficulties encountered from Jacksonville to Daytona did not in any way prepare them for those with which they were confronted later on. Through many difficulties the least of which were blowouts, broken shoes and clutches that would not hold Oak Hill, Titusville, Rockledge and Melbourne were successively passed and left behind. Through sand, mud and water up to the running boards of the cars, fording lakes and around stumps, lay the course. The greatest enjoyment of the trip was the camp. After a delightful repast prepared by the ladies the party would gather round the camp fire, smoking and exchanging comments on the adventures of the day.

From Melbourne to Fort Pierce was another continuous struggle with mud, sand and water. Sticking in sand to the axles, it took all the engines power and the aid of a half dozen negroes or more to release the cars from the grip of the sand.

Striking the government road near White City, the party felt secure as to their direction, but a wrong choice between the forks threw them off the track. During the afternoon the first car which contained the most of the baggage, ran into a real lake of water across the road. The lake was then crossed, but the triumph was short lived for a half mile further another was encountered. This one was crossed only to meet another, and so the road wound through what seemed oceans of water. The continued low speed caused considerable difficulty with the engines, which demanded constant care and attention.

At one very large lake, the second car was stalled, and had to be unloaded, the ladies carried and the car itself hauled by ropes to the shore. Overtaken by night the party camped out and added another to their list of delightful evenings spent around the camp fire. And this in spite of all misfortunes, for all were game for whatever fate had in store. Their fortitude was very much needed, for after another strenuous day, instead of meeting the cheery lights of Palm Beach they saw before them the fire of a Seminole camp. Upon inquiry of the Indians, who luckily were able to speak English, they allotted the statement that they were only a few miles from Lake Okeechobee, and miles and miles from civilization, except that represented by their outfit.

The Indians were very much occupied with the automobiles, apparently not having seen one before. They did not trust themselves to come near er than five to ten feet of the machines. The Seminoles sat up all night watching the autos, never speaking unless spoken to, and the members of the touring party, especially the ladies, to whom the Seminoles were as much of a curiosity as the automobiles were to the Indians, also spent a rather uneasy night, their fitful slumbers being filled with dreams of Indians with scalping knives, alligators and wild beasts lurking around their camp fire.

Setting out early the next morning and making little time through continued water, mud and sand, West Jupiter was finally reached which was the first sight of civilization for about three days.

When within twelve miles of Palm Beach, every leaf in a spring was broken, and the distance to Palm Beach had to be made on the frame. After a rest of several days the party motored to Boynton, and then on to Miami.

The adventure was unique in that it was the first expedition of the kind on which women and children were carried. And it was no little experience for the men of the party who had to meet almost insurmountable difficulties offered by the terrible condition of the roads.

Florida is noted for its good roads and, while the route to Miami may not be among the best of them, the difficulties of this party arose principally from the lack of knowledge of the proper route to follow and then losing their way south of White City.

ANTLERED HERD TO HAVE BIG DOINGS.

Big doings are scheduled by the local lodge of Elks this evening. Several candidates will be slid over the slippery slides, after which a big feed will be spread for the members and visitors.

BALL GAME TOMORROW

DAYTONA vs. ROLLINS.

Lovers of that great American game, base ball, should not forget the game to be played tomorrow afternoon, at Harrison's Park, between Daytona and the Rollins College team.

The Rollins College boys played at Ormond yesterday afternoon and are to play there again this afternoon.

Quite a number from this city attended the Monday game and Benjamin Foltz pitched one or more innings for Ormond. Manager Nash, of the Daytona team, says there was a good deal of heavy hitting during the play and the score ran high, but the field work was excellent.

The Daytona boys are good ball players and though it is somewhat difficult for them to find time to practice at this season of the year, they are in fine shape to meet the Rollins team and the game promises to be an interesting one.

The game is to be called at 2:30 p. m.

JOHN L. SULLIVAN SAILS FOR EUROPE.

BOSTON, Feb. 8.—John L. Sullivan, the "only John" took his departure for the Old World today and some of the best talent in the boxing and theatrical world were present to say "bon voyage." When Sullivan engaged the bridal suite on the steamer Ivernia two weeks ago, his friends began suspecting him of taking a bride, so his sailing today was not as quiet as he anticipated.

"INGOMAR" AT OPERA HOUSE LAST NIGHT.

"Ingomar, The Barbarian Chief," was presented by Allen Holton at the Daytona Opera House Monday evening under the aupices of Live Oak Chapter, No. 1, O. E. S., and Abigail Bartholemew Chapter D. A. R., and a delightful evening was spent by those who enjoy high class monologue acting.

The Shakespearian drama was not the only attraction of the evening, however, as a fine musical program was rendered.

Mr. Holton did a fine bit of acting in the impersonation of Ingomar, the hero, also in personating Polydor, the miserly aspirant for the hand of Parthenia, the heroine, and in so doing showed a wide versatility in character portrayal. One of the largest audiences of the season greeted the the performance. The following young ladies acted as ushers: Misses Florence Cook, Marguerite Shields, Ruth Rodgers, Lee Bowers and Flossie Bingham.

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

MODERN HEROD.

The milk trust of Chicago has raised the price of milk from 1 to 3 cents per quart, alleging the high price of feed and the greater cleanness of the dairymen.

Which sounds plausible, but—

If you buy milk or the plot the price is 3 cents per pint or 30 cents per quart.

That means that the poor of the city, who are the least able to buy, must pay more for milk than the rich.

The tenement folk do not buy milk by the quart. They must always buy in small quantities—one by the scuttleful of the tenses and milk by the pint.

And because of their poverty these poor of Chicago must pay 20 PER CENT MORE for their milk than the rich or well to do.

Do you wonder the poor of the cities lose hope?

The poor families have babies. They have more babies than the rich. The equation is like this:

More babies—less money.

Less money—higher price.

Babies must have milk. Their little stomachs will not digest or assimilate more substantial food.

Milk is a necessity where there is a baby. And the men who manage the milk trust know that. Without milk the babies will die—rich babies and poor babies alike.

If the milk is impure the babies will die, and thousands do die on that account. If there is not enough milk the baby will cry and anguish and die.

The milk trust knows that thousands of poor mothers almost starve the family to pay for baby's funeral. They know as long as there is a penny in the house baby will get his milk. If there is no money the mother will go to the pawnbroker up at the corner.

Now—

Investigation shows the farmers are getting no more money for their milk than before the raise. The trust is not only squeezing an extra cent out of the consumer, but it is COINING 2 CENTS EXTRA ON THE QUART OUT OF THE MOTHER LOVE FOR THE BABY.

Could there be a meaner thing?

The New Testament, which teaches love, contains few curses, but it has one especially reserved for the spoilers of babyhood.

It says in substance that he who offends one of these little ones would better tie a stone about his neck and drown himself in the depths of the sea.

It is an appropriate curse.

Liszt's Advice.

Being asked one day what one should do in order to become an efficient piano player, Liszt replied laconically, "One must eat well and walk much."

How Sugar Melts.

If we drop a lump of sugar into a cup of tea we find it takes a considerable time to melt if allowed to remain at the bottom of the vessel, but if we agitate the spoon near the surface of the liquid it dissolves much more rapidly. This is owing to the sugar as it melts rendering the portion of the tea containing it heavier. The sweetest part, therefore, descends, leaving the sugar constantly in contact with unsweetened or only partially sweetened tea; in fact, a continual circulation of fluid is promoted until the whole is dissolved. When the sugar is placed or permitted to lie at the bottom of the cup it dissolves until the layer of fluid next it is thoroughly sweetened or saturated, when it practically ceases to dissolve any further, the unsweetened and heavier stratum above it acting for a considerable time until the law of diffusion comes gradually into play, like an imperfious covering, in keeping back the lighter, unsweetened fluid above; hence the reason also why stirring, in breaking up the saturated layer and allowing access to the unsweetened portion, is so effectual in bringing about the uniform sweetening of tea. Life is not infrequently sweetened by the same stirring up process.

"Put that into your pipe and smoke it" is no allusion to the pipes of peace or war that are usually smoked by some Indian tribes.

Meanness to a Blind Man.

A man with dark glasses over his eyes touched the conductor on the shoulder as the car neared Euclid avenue and East Fifty-fifth street.

"Pardon me," the man said, "but if you're the conductor I want to ask a favor. I'm blind, and I want you to lead me over to the curb when the car stops, if you'll be so good."

"Not that I minded the little bother of doin' that for him," remarked the conductor when he got back on his car, "but 'tain't right to let a blind man go around all alone like that at night trying to find his way around in the dark."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

How Sugar Melts.

If we drop a lump of sugar into a cup of tea we find it takes a considerable time to melt if allowed to remain at the bottom of the vessel, but if we hold it up in the spoon near the surface of the liquid it dissolves much more rapidly. This is owing to the sugar as it melts rendering the portion of the tea containing it heavier. The sweetened part, therefore, descends, leaving the sugar constantly in contact with unsweetened or only partially sweetened tea—in fact, a continual circulation of fluid is promoted until the whole is dissolved. When the sugar is placed or permitted to lie at the bottom of the cup it dissolves until the layer of fluid next it is thoroughly sweetened or saturated, when it practically ceases to dissolve any further, the sweetened and heavier stratum above it acting for a considerable time until the law of diffusion comes gradually into play, like an impervious covering, in keeping back the lighter, unsweetened fluid above; hence the reason also why stirring, in breaking up the saturated layer and allowing access to the unsweetened portion, is so effectual in bringing about the uniform sweetening of tea. Life is not infrequently sweetened by the same stirring up process.

"Put that into your pipe and smoke it" is an allusion to the pipes of peace or war that are solemnly smoked by some Indian tribes.

SHIRT WAIST STRIKERS RESUMED WORK TODAY

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 8—Having compromised all difficulties, all the shirt waist strikers here returned to work today, closing a severe struggle of seven weeks, which has cost the operatives more than $200,000. The strikers received a majority of the concessions in the compromise.

"PUG" JOHNSON'S TRIAL HAS BEEN POSTPONED.

NEW YORK, Feb. 8—Jack Johnson, heavy-weight champion, will not be tried before the March term of court for assault on Norman Finder, the consumptive negro. The case was stricken from the present calendar in the Supreme Court today on account of the press of the more important cases.

DID NOT FEED ROOSEVELT ON HALF PUTRID BEEF.

FORMER STEWART OF THE WHITE HOUSE DENIES CHARGES MADE BY MEAT INSPECTOR DODGE.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8 — Former President Roosevelt was not fed on half putrid beef to keep him savage, according to Henry Pinckney, who today denied yesterday's testimony of Meat Inspector Dodge regarding the meat supplied at the White House. Dodge testified before the special committee of the House which is investigating the food question.

Pinckney, the steward at the White House under Roosevelt's administration, is highly indignant at the charge.

It Rained Pitchforks.

Dr. John Bascom was a stickler for pure English. On one occasion as a student was leaving the doctor's house he called back, "It's raining cats and dogs."

"The rainfall is excessive," immediately corrected the doctor.

Dr. Bascom then ventured down the steps to determine the force of the elements and was thoroughly drenched by the driving rain. Hurrying back upon the porch, he exclaimed, "Indeed, it is raining pitchforks!"

The student glanced at the doctor questioningly, who was visibly embarrassed because of his exaggerated reference to the storm. In confusion he dismissed his visitor after giving him the use of an umbrella.

On the way home the student ran into a projection of an awning, which pierced a hole into the umbrella.

The next day both men were planning explanations and apologies, the doctor for using "pitchforks" and the student for ruining an umbrella.

Dr. Bascom lost no time in relieving his mind, but was interrupted by the grateful student, who saw the way to explanation made very clear, when he said:

"Doctor, the term you applied to last night's rain was correct. Thus your umbrella was struck by one of the descending pitchforks."—Pearson's Weekly.

PROSAIC SIDE OF VALENTINE'S DAY.

While the observance of St. Valentine's day owes its continued existence to the passing to heart, the holiday of the lovers has its practical as well as its sentimental side. Many thousands of dollars are invested in the business of sending the tokens of love emblazoned in fancy paper, silk, lace and tinsel. There is a scarcity of valentines this year and high prices prevail, these combining may be said to the fact That a recent fire caused $250,000 loss in the other and largest valentine factory in the United States

On Lifting Cats and Rabbits.

It is a mistaken idea that the proper way to lift a full grown cat is by the nape of its neck without supporting the lower part of its body with the other hand. It is true that the mother cat carries young kittens by grasping in her mouth the loose skin of the back of her offspring's neck, but a tiny kitten is a very different matter from a large cat, and, indeed, the only way to lift a kitten without squeezing or hurting its soft little body is to lift it by its neck. But after it has grown larger its own weight is too great to be supported by such a bit of skin and fur as is so grasped by the hand, and many a cat suffers perfect tortures by being held in this manner and is quite helpless to run or struggle, as in such a position certain of its muscles cannot be controlled, and it is absolutely at the mercy of its unconscious tormentor.

The same rule should be observed in lifting rabbits by their ears. They should always be partially supported by the free hand and not allowed to dangle with their whole weight straining from their large but necessarily delicate ears.—Watchword.

More Than One Way.

The caller, a man whom he had known in the old town back in Pennsylvania, had dropped in to talk old times with the busy lawyer, and the lawyer had endured it patiently for an hour and a half. Then, unseen by the caller, he pushed a small knob at the end of his desk, and a bell rang in the adjoining room.

"Excuse me a moment, Mr. Hockensplutter," he said, stepping into the other room and proceeding to hold this one sided conversation over an imaginary telephone:

"Hello!"

"——— ——— ———."

"Yes."

"——— ——— ———."

"No, Bertha, I'll not have time to come home for dinner. It's already 4:30, and I have several hours' work yet to do. I am very busy and have been detained."

"——— ——— ———."

"Yes. Goodby!"

Then he went back to his desk. But Mr. Hockensplutter had already risen to go.—Chicago Tribune.

That Genius Whistler.

Of Whistler Lady St. Helier in "Memories of Fifty Years" writes thus: "He was a genius and had all the defects and qualities of one. To him everything was a joke, the subject of a bonmot. The lightest and dalutest of persiflage was what he excelled in, and one never had a dull moment in his company. He was always late for dinner, arranging the immortal lock of gray hair in its proper place as he came into the room, with apologies and excuses, none of them true—of which he was perfectly conscious and also of the fact that his host and hostess knew that they were not. Wherever he was there would be a circle listening to him, and his ringing laugh would be heard all over the room as he sent his shafts right and left into the joints of the armor of those who were attacking him. It was a great surprise and almost a shock when he appeared as a benedict."

How Eskimos Measure Time.

Writing of the Eskimo methods of measuring time in a region of six months day or night, Harry Whitney in Outing says:

"The Eskimo divides his periods into 'sleeps,' but a sleep does not designate by any means the civilized measure of day and night. It is, in fact, a very uncertain term. Often we traveled from twenty to thirty hours without rest. Now there was no night, and I so far lost count of time that I was not at all certain of dates. Our single marches with the succeeding 'sleep' not infrequently covered a full forty-eight hours, or two ordinary days. The object of these extended marches was to take advantage of good weather and general conditions or because no safe or convenient camping place presented itself in the interim."

Two of a Kind.

There is something about the character of mules that makes their owners at times almost equally stubborn. In the Washington Star this dialogue concerning one if not two such animals is reported:

"Why don't you get rid of that mule?"

"Well, suh," answered Erastus Pinkley, "I hates to give in. If I was to trade that mule off he'd regard it as a personal victory. He's been tryin' fob de las' six weeks to get rid o' me."

An Injustice.

When George III. first met Sir John Irwin, a thirsty soul, he remarked facetiously, "They tell me, Sir John, you're fond of a glass of wine."

"Your majesty," gravely responded the courtier, "your informants do me a great injustice. They should have said a bottle."—St. Louis Republic.

He Remembered.

Wife overlooking the scene of her betrothal—I remember, Algernon, so well when you proposed to me how painfully embarrassed you were. Algernon—Yes, dear, and I remember so well how kind and encouraging you were and how easy you made it for me after all.—London Tit-Bits.

Experience.

"Experience would be a wonderful asset but for one thing."

"What's that?"

"You can never sell it for what it cost you."

A small bag cannot be made to contain what is large. A short rope cannot be used to draw water from a deep well.—Chinese Proverb.

JOHNNY'S CHRISTMAS

By SARAH BRYCE BOWEN.

[Copyright, 1909, by American Press Association.]

On Christmas morning while Jimmy was trying hard to dress himself—the buttons were all too big for the holes, he said—he heard a sharp bark downstairs. Jimmy stopped at once, and his eyes and ears were wide open. At another bark, half dressed, he dashed out of his room and downstairs. There in the library he saw as pretty a little fox terrier as ever stepped on four feet. Jimmy stood looking at the terrier, and the terrier stood with his pointed nose and sharp eyes turned directly on Jimmy. Then by way of making Jimmy's acquaintance he wagged his tail. At that moment Jimmy's father came into the room and said:

"He's your Christmas present, Jim. How do you like him?"

Jim was so wrapped in admiration of his dog that he made no reply. Finally he gasped:

"Is he really all mine, papa?"

"All yours, sonny. I intended to give him to you at breakfast, but his bark stood in the way. Come; we three will go up and finish your dressing. I suppose I'll have to help you now that your attention is diverted from your clothes. Come on, Zip."

"Is that his name?"

"That's a good one for him, don't you think so? He looks as if his name might be Zip."

And Zip the terrier continued to be called. There is as much affinity between children and dogs as there is enmity between dogs and cats. From the moment Jimmy saw Zip he loved him, and from the moment Zip saw Jimmy he adored him. Jimmy began to go to kindergarten that year, and from the time he departed Zip did nothing but wait for his return. Indeed, he would have gone with his little master had the door not been shut on him when Jimmy went out. But as soon as Jimmy came home Zip rescinded a rubber ball on the head. He jumped all over the boy, his expression plainly denoting his joy. Then what times Zip and Jim would have together! They would romp till Jim was too tired to romp any longer. Then Jim would get out his toys, and Zip would sit by watching him, turning his little head at Jim's every motion.

Jimmy's parents objected to the two friends passing the night as well as the day together, and this was a great hardship for both the dog and the boy. Many a time, notwithstanding great precaution, the family would awaken in the morning to find Zip and Jim in bed together. Jimmy's mother threatened to send his pet away if he did it again.

One morning Zip waited as he was always directed to wait for his chum to come down to breakfast. Jimmy did not come. Zip noticed that the father and mother looked anxious, and the dog was himself correspondingly worried. He ran this way and that way, butting his nose against a door that confined him, and when a maid opened it without thinking Zip sprang through and ran upstairs into Jim's room. There lay Jim in bed looking red and hot. His mother was bending over him anxiously. Zip sprang up on to the bed. The mother ordered him off, but one look from Jim changed her intention, and she permitted Zip to remain.

But Zip had to go when the doctor came and was kept out of the room for the rest of the day. In the morning Jim was a little better, and his Christmas dog was let into his room and up on to his bed, where he licked the boy's hand, looking at him with melancholy eyes, as though his heart would break. But he was not permitted to remain long. Jimmy was too ill. Indeed, there were times when he probably did not know that his pet was with him. Zip was put outside, but remained at the door, looking up wistfully as people went in and out, as if for a bit of comfort as to his friend's condition.

Jimmy grew worse, and it seemed that he would pass away shortly before the dying year. The day before Christmas after the doctor's morning call Zip saw Jimmy's mother in tears. She had been told that the crisis would take place during the next twenty-four hours. Zip could not be driven from the door all day. In the evening he saw by the expression on the faces of those nursing Jimmy that something important was taking place.

It was 7 o'clock. The dinner table was set below in the dining room. On the sideboard was a dish of fruit, including some Malaga grapes. But no one seemed inclined to eat, and the room was deserted. The door of Jimmy's bedroom opened, and a trained nurse came out. A few minutes later Zip looped up on the sick boy's bed with a bunch of grapes in his mouth. Jimmy's mother was about to take Zip in her arms and set him outside when her boy opened his eyes. Seeing Zip and the grapes, he put out his hand, trying to break off a grape, but was too feeble.

Then Jimmy's mother plucked a grape and held it to her boy's lips. He swallowed it and with his eyes asked for more. Grape after grape was eaten by the patient till the last one on the bunch was gone. Then the boy slept, with Zip in his arms.

At 10 o'clock the nurse took Jimmy's temperature and discovered that it was nearly normal. At 11 the doctor came and was astonished at the change in the boy's condition. In the morning Jimmy ate a good breakfast and, hearing the word Christmas spoken, asked for his presents.

That was a happy day for all, especially Zip, who had turned the scale.

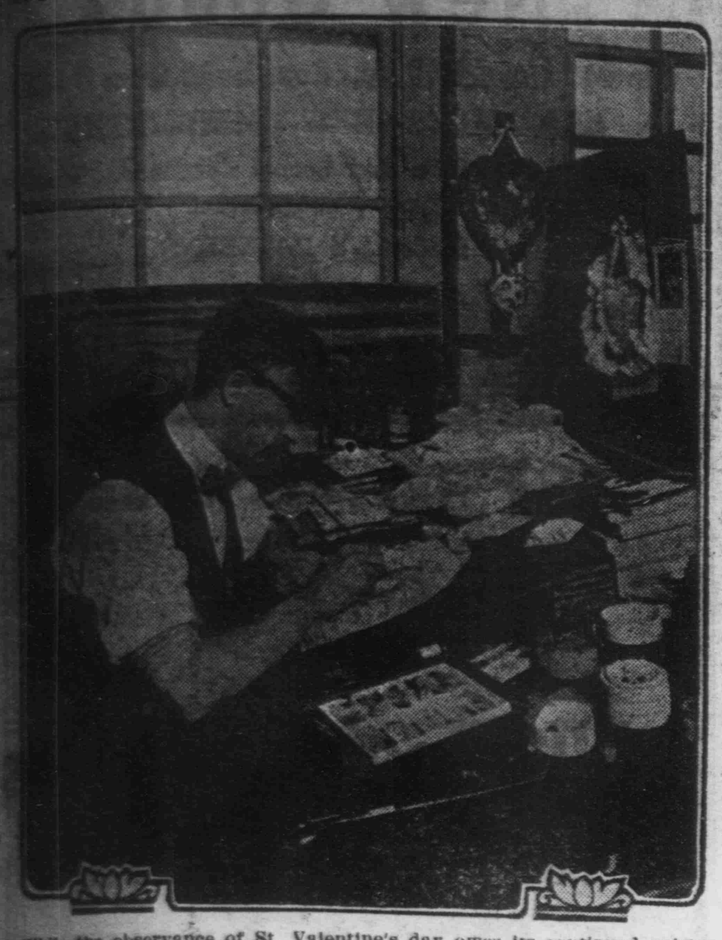
PROSAIC SIDE OF VALENTINE'S DAY.



While the observance of St. Valentine's day owes its continued existence to the young in heart, the holiday of the lovers has its practical as well as its sentimental side. Many thousands of dollars are invested in the business of making the tokens of love embodied in fancy paper, silk, lace and tinsel. If there is a scarcity of valentines this year and high prices prevail, these conditions may be laid to the fact that a recent fire caused $200,000 loss in the oldest and biggest valentine factory in the United States.

On Lifting Cats and Rabbits.

It is a mistaken idea that the proper way to lift a full grown cat is by the nape of its neck without supporting the lower part of its body with the other hand. It is true that the mother cat carries young kittens by grasping in her mouth the loose skin at the back of her offspring's neck, but a tiny kitten is a very different matter from a large cat, and, indeed, the only way to lift a kitten without squeezing or hurting its soft little body is to lift it by its neck. But after it has grown larger its own weight is too great to be supported by such a bit of skin and fur as is so grasped by the hand, and many a cat suffers perfect tortures by being held in this manner and is quite helpless to run or struggle, as in such a position certain of its muscles cannot be controlled, and it is absolutely at the mercy of its unconscious tormentor.

The same rule should be observed in lifting rabbits by their ears. They should always be partially supported by the free hand and not allowed to dangle with their whole weight straining from their large but necessarily delicate ears.—Watchword.

More Than One Way.

The caller, a man whom he had known in the old town back in Pennsylvania, had dropped in to talk old times with the busy lawyer, and the lawyer had endured it patiently for an hour and a half. Then, unseen by the caller, he pushed a small knob at the end of his desk, and a bell rang in the adjoining room.

"Excuse me a moment, Mr. Hockensplutter," he said, stepping into the other room and proceeding to hold this one sided conversation over an imaginary telephone:

"Hello!"

"—— —— —— ——."

"Yes."

"—— —— —— ——?"

"No, Bertha, I'll not have time to come home for dinner. It's already 4:30, and I have several hours' work yet to do. I am very busy and have been detained."

"—— —— —— ——."

"Yes. Goodby!"

Then he went back to his desk. But Mr. Hockensplutter had already risen to go.—Chicago Tribune.

That Genius Whistler.

Of Whistler Lady St. Helier in "Memories of Fifty Years" writes thus: "He was a genius and had all the defects and qualities of one. To him everything was a joke, the subject of a bonmot. The lightest and daintiest of persiflage was what he excelled in, and one never had a dull moment in his company. He was always late for dinner, arranging the immortal lock of gray hair in its proper place as he came into the room, with apologies and excuses, none of them true—of which he was perfectly conscious and also of the fact that his host and hostess knew that they were not. Wherever he was there would be a circle listening to him, and his ringing laugh would be heard all over the room as he sent his shafts right and left into the joints of the armor of those who were attacking him. It was a great surprise and almost a shock when he appeared as a benedict."

The surface of the street northward from the South bridge, has recently been repaired at a trifling expense by filling the depressions with marl. Many of the streets of Daytona could be repaired very satisfactorily in the same way, instead of allowing them to remainin the present horrible condition, and soon compelling the great cost of resurfacing them all. Fill up the holes and many of the streets would remain in fairly good condition for a couple of years or more and maintain the credit of the city in two ways.

MUSICAL PROGRAM AT THE EPWORTH HALL.

The music students of Mrs. Geo. A. Main gave an entertainment at Epworth Hall Monday evening. The musicale was given more for the purpose of tutoring the younger members of the class to appear before an audience—on this occasion to consist of parents and interested friends—rather than with the idea of entertaining the general public. The class acquitted itself, however, to the credit of its teacher and the encouragement of their parents.

THE MARIETA, OF NEW YORK, ON CRUISE TO PALM BEACH.

The hunting cabin cruising yacht, Marieta, of New York, which came in from St. Augustine, by way of the canal saturday, and is lying at the Halifax River Yacht Club wharf, will leave tomorrow, probably, to continue her cruise to Palm Beach.

The Marieta has aboard her owner, A. V. Wyckoff and wife, of Bay Shore, Long Island.

The yacht is forty-seven feet and some inches in length, eleven foot beam and carries 25-horse power gas engine for power. She is rather deep draft for these waters, having been built for lake service, but Capt. Thos. Lamphier, who is in charge of the Marieta, brought her this far south without any difficulty, although unfamiliar with these waters.

ORANGES GROWING SCARCE: PRICES WILL BE HIGH.

People are inclined to question the price of oranges and grape fruit in the local market, not realizing that the fruit is going rapidly sold, owing to the fact that California orchards suffered even more damage from cold than did those of this State. Prices are ranging higher North, even for fruit slightly affected by frost.

The New York market last week gave from $4.00 to $5.00 for Indian River or Florida East Coast fruit, while special brands like those of W. S. Hart, E. P. Porcher and others of established reputation, ran still higher, some of Mr. Porcher's oranges bringing as much as $5.50 per box at auction, in car load lots, while his grape fruit went as high as $6.68 per box.

Hon. George H. Munroe, of this city on last returns, netted $1.75 per box for his oranges on board the cars here. Mr. Munroe shipped two carloads last week and is sending out another and probably the last car of the season today.

Mr. Munroe would have preferred to hold back more of his fruit for the local market, but finds it is beginning to lighten up and would not hold well on the trees and the prices North also are much better than the fruit will bring here.

MANHATTANS HERE! TO SING TONIGHT.

The Manhattan Opera Company is in Daytona. The first performance will be tonight, when "Fra Diavolo" will be sung. The Manhattans are thoroughly known throughout the South as a reputable company of song birds and their appearance in Daytona will unquestionably fill the opera house at all five nights performances and also the two matinees, Wednesday and Saturday. The prima donna with the Manhattans is Miss Miss Kittie Nice Perle, a young lady who has won much praise for her charming manner in handling the difficult leading roles of the many operas sung by the Manhattans. The chorus with the Manhattans is the prize ring of the organization and the initial appearance of the company here will prove why it is that so many flattering notices from the Mr. Kanes' song birds are receiving press on the present Southern tour. "Olivette," "The Royal Prince," "The Bohemian Girl," "Martha," "Maritana," and "Pinafore" will also be sung during the Daytona engagement.

The surface of the street northward from the South bridge, has recently been repaired at a trifling expense by filling the depressions with marl. Many of the streets of Daytona could be repaired very satisfactorily in the same way, instead of allowing them to remainin the present horrible condition, and soon compelling the great cost of resurfacing them all. Fill up the holes and many of the streets would remain in fairly good condition for a couple of years or more and maintain the credit of the city in two ways.

H. W. PACKARD DIED THIS FORENOON.

H. W. Packard, of Ormond, who has been ill at Dr. Bohannon's hospital for several weeks, died today at about eleven o'clock. The body will be shipped north tomorrow for interment.

RACE WAR IN TENNESSEE SUBSIDES

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Feb. 8 — Advices from Capt. William Burk, of the local police department, who is investigating the white and negro race war among the laborers at the government dam, at Poles Bar, says the trouble is now over. Three negroes were killed but it is not known how. The trouble started over a negro foreman bossing whites.

"ALL THE WORLD'S A STAGE," AT BAPTIST CHURCH TONIGHT

Byron W. King , A. M. Ph. D., President of the School of Oratory, of Pittsburg, Pa., will be the feature of the second entertainment of the Lyceum Course at the First Baptist church tonight. Mr. King will give his popular lecture, All the World's a Stage. This number is an opportunity that the people of Daytona should not fail to grasp, as they will seldom have the chance to hear so accomplished and versatile a lecturer and entertainer as Byron W. King.

MUSICAL PROGRAM AT THE EPWORTH HALL.

The music students of Mrs. Geo. A. Main gave an entertainment at Epworth Hall Monday evening. The musicale was given more for the purpose of tutoring the younger members of the class to appear before an audience—on this occasion to consist of parents and interested friends—rather than with the idea of entertaining the general public. The class acquitted itself, however, to the credit of its teacher and the encouragement of their parents.

THE MARIETA, OF NEW YORK, ON CRUISE TO PALM BEACH.

The hunting cabin cruising yacht, Marieta, of New York, which came in from St. Augustine, by way of the canal saturday, and is lying at the Halifax River Yasht Club wharf, will leave tomorrow, probably, to continue her cruise to Palm Beach.

The Marieta has aboard her owner, A. V. Wyckoff and wife, of Bay Shore, Long Island.

The yacht is forty-seven feet and some inches in length, eleven foot beam and carries 25-horse power gas engine for power. She is rather deep draft for these waters, having been built for lake service, but Capt. Thos. Lamphier, who is in charge of the Marieta, brought her this far south without any difficulty, although unfamiliar with these waters.

ORANGES GROWING SCARCE; PRICES WILL BE HIGH.

People are inclined to question the price of oranges and grape fruit in the local market, not realizing that the fruit is going rapidly and, owing to the fact that California oranges suffered even more damage from cold than did those of this State. Prices are ranging higher North, even for fruit slightly affected by frost.

The New York market last week gave from $4.00 to $5.00 for Indian River or Florida East Coast fruit, while special brands like those of W. S. Hart, E. P. Porcher and others of established reputation, ran still higher, some of Mr. Porcher's oranges bringing as much as $5.50 per box at auction, in car load lots, while his grape fruit went as high as $6.63 per box.

Hon. George H. Munroe, of this city on last returns, netted $1.75 per box for his oranges on board the cars here. Mr. Munroe shipped two carloads last week and is sending out another and probably the last car of the season today.

Mr. Munroe would have preferred to hold back more of his fruit for the local market, but finds it is beginning to lighten up and would not hold well on the trees and the prices North also are much better than the fruit will bring here.

MANHATTANS HERE; TO SING TONIGHT.

The Manhattan Opera Company is in Daytona. The first performance will be tonight, when "Fra Diavolo" will be sung . The Manhattans are thoroughly known throughout the South as a reputable company of song birds and their appearance in Daytona will unquestionably fill the opera house at all five nights performances and also the two matinees, Wednesday and Saturday. The prima donna with the Manhattans is Miss Miss Kittie Nice Perle, a young lady who has won much praise for her charming manner in handling the difficult leading roles of the many operas sung by the Manhattans. The chorus with the Manhattans is the prize ring of the organization and the initial appearance of the company here will prove why it is that so many flattering notices from the Mr. Kanes' song birds are receiving press on the present Southern tour. "Olivette,' "The Royal Prince," "The Bohemian Girl," "Martha," "Maritana," and "Pinafore' will also be sung during the Daytona engagement .
